On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Manchester City as we bid to get back on the winning path after our disappointment at Chelsea last weekend.

Not one of us had experienced anything like that and it was inconceivable that we should lose 4-3 after being 3-0 up at half-time.

In ten years from now people will be saying "do you remember that game at Chelsea?" I'll never forget it.

But at Burnden, we are a team — the players and staff alike — and on Monday we went behind closed doors to talk about what happened in a civilised manner. We had to in order to come up with some answers.

The alarming thing is that we all thought our big problem would be putting the ball into the opponents' net, but we don't seem to have had much trouble doing it. We thought we'd be tight at the back, but we aren't and that has now become our biggest problem.

Alan Gowling hits target to score the Wanderers' third at Chelsea.

Picture by Bolton Evening News,

I still don't like the thought of playing defensively away from home. We were accused of doing it at Arsenal, but the accusations were not true.

It is my firm belief that people will not come to watch defensive football but you still have to get results, no-one knows that better than I do.

At Chelsea, the home side did to us in the second half what we did to them in the first — the only snag was they went one better.

It was a shame that things went as they did because I felt we were just starting to emerge as a First Division side after beating Leeds 3-1 in our last home match.

The defeat knocks us back a bit, but it is up to us to pick ourselves up and show today that we really mean business.

Welcome to . . .

It's now ten years since the Manchester City side, inspired by Joe Mercer and Malcolm Allison, won the League Championship.

Though City have never been far away from the challenge in the intervening years — they missed by only one point in 1967 and came fourth last season — they have never quite been able to match the hot pace set by such formidable teams as Liverpool and Leeds down the years.

After a slow start to this new season, City fans are already beginning to wonder about their prospects of gaining any major honour.

They failed to win any of their opening four League games and suffered one severe set-back when they were beaten 4-1 at Maine Road by Liverpool.

It wasn't until they played Leeds at Maine Road that City found anything like their true form and their 3-0 success that day was certainly the shot in the arm they needed to jerk them out of their early-season lethargy.

Since then results have shown an improvement, they have risen up the table and they are still very much involved in both the UEFA Cup and the League Cup.

In the UEFA Cup City knocked out the crack Dutch side Twente by 4-3 on aggregate and now face a second round tie against Standard Liege (Belgium).

They have beaten Grimsby (2-0) and Blackpool (3-0 after a 1-1 draw) in the League Cup and now travel to Norwich in round four.

It was only to be expected, of course, that City would need a few matches to enable their major close-season signings, the Futchers twins and Colin Viljoen, to settle down among new surroundings.

The twins had both played a few games in the First Division before, during Luton's solitary 1974/75 campaign at the top, but neither was a regular member of the side at the time.

These identical twins have never been separated in a footballing sense, having been together at Chester, Luton and now City.

City manager Tony Book has known for some while that he would have to sign a centre-back for those loyal club men Mike Doyle, who has now joined Stoke City, and Tommy Booth have been nearing the time when they would have to step down. So he invested £350,000 in Paul Futchers. Weeks later Mr. Book signed brother Ron for £75,000.

Paul went into the City side alongside Dave Watson with Kenny Clements and Willie Donachie filling the full-back positions.

The giant Joe Corrigan still holds fort in goal and is currently playing the best football of his career.

Though City possess that outstanding Scottish World Cup star Asa Hartford, and have some other exciting midfield talent progressing nicely in the side, it is probably true to say that they have yet properly to fill the void left by the injury to Colin Bell two years ago.

MANCHESTER CITY

Colin, who graced the England team on 48 occasions, made a first-team come-back last season but losing two years at this stage of his career leaves a great deal of ground to make up and it was not to have been expected that he would have returned in his full glory.

It was hoped that the signing of Colin Viljoen from Ipswich for £100,000 this summer would go some way towards filling the void but his appearances have been limited and it has been Gary Owen and Paul Power who have been holding the other two mid-field positions, with Gerry Keegan making occasional appearances.

The most likely line-up in attack is — Mike Channon, Brian Kidd and Peter Barnes, with Ron Futcher or Roger Palmer being called up in the absence of either of the central strikers.

Kidd and Futcher have each scored five goals though Futcher only gets in as a deputy when others are unavailable. Channon and Palmer have each scored three times.

City have many players of exciting talents among their squad. Tony Book's main concern now is for the team to find consistency in performance and thus enhance confidence for a crack at one of the trophies.

Even if it might already be too late to win the Championship, there are still two domestic Cups to go for plus, of course, the UEFA Cup.

JOE CORRIGAN (Goalkeeper). Joe is still very much a part of Ron Greenwood's plans for England's future. Though Ray Clemence, and his accepted deputy Peter Shilton, have been playing so consistently in the full England side, Joe was rewarded with six games in the re-established England "B" side last season.

KENNY CLEMENTS (Defender). Kenny was introduced to the City side in 1975, settling in immediately, and he has been their right-back for much of the time since.

DAVE WATSON (Defender). Dave, who has 35 England caps, is now in his fourth season with City following his £275,000 transfer from Sunderland. Though he is today one of England's most accomplished centre-backs, he could well have made a career for himself as a centre-forward. Soon after his transfer from Notts County to Rotherham for £7,000 back in 1968 he switched from defence to attack with great success.

PAUL FUTCHER (Defender). City paid Luton £350,000 for Paul in the recent close-season and he has slotted into the void left by Mike Doyle's departure. Paul began his career with Chester and commanded a £100,000 fee when Luton signed him in 1974. He is an England under-21 international.

WILLIE DONACHIE (Defender). Willie was, of course, a prominent member of Scotland's World Cup team in Argentina. He now has 33 caps. Willie joined the club as an amateur and came into their League team in 1969/70.

TOMMY BOOTH (Defender/Midfield). Though he is a centre-back by profession, Tommy did a magnificent job in midfield for many games last season when emergency called and, in the end, he held a place in that department on merit.

GARY OWEN (Midfield). Gary made his first League appearances for City in 1975/76 but now he's not only established himself in First Division football, he is also a regular member of the England under-21 side.

ASA HARTFORD (Midfield). Asa was one of Scotland's few successes in Argentina, where he played in all three games. He now has 28 caps to his credit and will most certainly be part of their European Championship challenge over the next two years.

COLIN VILJOEN (Midfield). City signed Colin from Ipswich for £100,000 this summer. Born in South Africa, Colin began his soccer career with Ipswich Town and he celebrated his League debut with a hat-trick against Portsmouth in 1967.

GERRY KEEGAN (Midfield). Gerry developed in the junior sides and made his senior bow in 1974/75. He played many games at right-back, a splendid example of the modern attacking full-back, but this season he has been seen in the middle of the field.

BRIAN KIDD (Forward). Brian was a Manchester United first-teamer for seven seasons winning England youth and under-23 honours, plus his two England caps, while at Old Trafford. He moved on to Arsenal for £110,000 in 1974 and, while he scored a lot of goals for the Gunners, he didn't settle to life in London. He welcomed the chance to join City for £100,000 in 1976.

MIKE CHANNON (Forward). Mike, an England player on 44 occasions, became a big star with Southampton and was a member of the Saints' side that beat Manchester United at Wembley in 1976.

PETER BARNES (Forward). Peter has the chance to become one of England's great stars, having already been honoured many times at full and under-21 levels, though he has been playing regular First Division football for little more than three years.

RON FUTCHER (Forward). Ron was signed from Luton for £75,000 in the summer but, though he scored a hat-trick against Chelsea and has netted five times so far, he is not certain of his first-team place! He began with his identical twin brother Paul at Chester and followed him to Luton.

ROGER PALMER (Forward). Roger made an explosive entry into League soccer last season. Though he played only four full League games, he scored three goals. In his first game this season,

PAUL POWER (Midfield). Paul came through from the junior sides to make his bow in City's League team in 1975/76. For the past two seasons he has been a fixture in midfield.

The price of success. . .

Last season was again an extremely successful year on the field of play but the price of success was expensive as the recently published Balance Sheet shows.

Although income showed a healthy increase of £95,000 on the previous year, expenses including Players' Transfer Fees increased by a staggering £300,000.

It took record donations of £167,000 from the Development Associations to reduce the loss for the year to £50,000.

The Club seated the Great Lever end of the ground during the close season and further expense will be incurred to improve the facilities on other parts during this present season.

The Chairman, Directors, Management, Players and Staff at Burnden Park would like to take this opportunity to thank every one of the loyal band of supporters who have helped Bolton Wanderers increase the revenue coming into the Club, both through the turnstiles and by supporting the Club's commercial activities.

DES McBAIN,

Club Secretary.

League leaders Liverpool extended their enviable record this season to 10 games without defeat when they beat Derby County 5-0 at Anfield.

They have scored 33 goals and only conceded four dropping just one point out of 20. Scorers against Derby were David Johnson, Kenny Dalglish (2) and Ray Kennedy (2).

* * *

Top attendance of the day was also at Anfield where 47,475 fans saw Liverpool's win. Second biggest gate was at Spurs where 41,230 saw the home side beat Birmingham 1-0.

The North East derby between Sunderland and Newcastle United provided the biggest Second Division gate with 35,405 at the game and Brighton's attendance was 24,605 for the visit of Fulham.

At the bottom end of the scale, 1,591 fans saw Halifax lose 3-0 at home to Swindon.

* * *

Manchester City's Gary Owen scored twice from the penalty spot in his side's 2-0 home win over Coventry City. But there was nothing stereotyped about Gary's spot kicks — he placed one on each side of goalkeeper Les Sealey.

Youth in action

Fans interested in having a look at the club's young players can see them in action in the Lancashire FA Youth Floodlit Cup against Oldham Athletic at Boundary Park on Tuesday evening. The game starts at 7 p.m.

They are in action in the Lancashire League, Division One next Saturday when they take on Manchester United at The Cliff, Broughton in a game which starts at 11 a.m.

Your Letters

Following the mindless acts of terrorism at Burnden Park against Leeds the other week, this kind of barbaric behaviour cannot be tolerated any longer.

Corporal punishment and longer prison sentences should also be implemented before the thing gets totally out of control.

I plead to all Bolton fans reading this to keep out of trouble, steer clear of any aggro, even when provoked, for your own sakes and for the sake of this great club we support and cherish. — Stephen McVay, Temple Road, Bolton.

Letters intended for publication in the B.W.F.C. programme should be addressed to The Programme Editor, Bolton Wanderers F.C., Burnden Park, Manchester Road, Bolton.

Switch for BBC Radio 2

Football fans at grounds all over Britain tune their transistors to BBC Radio's popular 'Sport on 2' programme every Saturday afternoon during the soccer season.

On November 23rd a new international frequency agreement comes into effect and Radio 2, (like Radio 1, Radio 3 and Radio 4), will move to a new position on your radio dial.

The sports service provided by Local Radio stations remains the same. But in future Radio 2 football fans will have to change to new wavelengths.

From November 23rd, SPORT on 2 moves from 1500m long wave to 433m/693kHz and 330m/909kHz medium wave.

Try both frequencies to see which gives you better reception in your area. The vhf positions for Radio 2 remain the same, between 88 and 91MHz.

Wanderers Promotions

What a great performance!

TO all agents and members of the Bolton Wanderers Development Association.

The performance of every one of our super band of agents over the last four years has been top quality in every way.

The back up you have provided to the club has played a major role in our eventual promotion to the First Division, of that there is no doubt.

I would just like to stress once again that without your involvement Bolton Wanderers FC would be virtually dead.

Without continued support this club cannot compete on equal terms with the giants of the Football League and quite easily surpass 95 per cent of the others.

In closing may I just say that £167,691 in just 12 months, produced entirely by your involvement either at work, in your shop or pub, and by door to door collections, is an overwhelming indication of the tremendous potential that exists in the town and surrounding districts.

You can rest assured that Ian Greaves, the players, Des McBain and the Board of Directors will, along with the chairman Mr. George Waiburton and myself — the two people directly involved with the Promotions department — endeavour to channel your terrific achievement to the continued progress of the club.

Thanks a million.
